ORDINANCE NO. 09-16

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BENICIA AMENDING SECTION 2.60.120 (APPLICATION) OF CHAPTER 2.60 (ADVISORY BODIES) BY ADDING A NEW SUBSECTION L. AND ADDING A NEW CHAPTER 2.108 (COMMUNITY SUSTAINABILITY COMMISSION) TO DIVISION 2 (BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS) OF TITLE 2 (ADMINISTRATION AND PERSONNEL) OF THE BENICIA MUNICIPAL CODE

WHEREAS, the City of Benicia General Plan states that “community development and sustainability are at the heart of the goals developed in [the] General Plan”, and the city has joined Local Governments for Sustainability (ICLEI), and has declared energy efficiency and climate protection planning a concern of top priority, and has joined the US Council of COOL Mayors, and prepared a greenhouse gas inventory and adopted greenhouse gas reduction targets on September 16, 2008, and is finalizing a climate action plan; and

WHEREAS, the City of Benicia has adopted greenhouse gas reduction goals of:

- 25% below 2000 level in 20140 for City Operations
- Maintain 2005 level in 2010 for the Community
- 33% below 2000 levels in 2020 for City Operations
- 10% below 2000 levels by 2020 for the Community; and

WHEREAS, State of California Assembly Bill 32 (Nunez) – The Global Warming Solutions Act of 2006, states that global warming “poses a serious threat to the economic well-being, public health, natural resources, and the environment of California”, AND aims to reduce greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions to 1990 levels by 2020 - a reduction of approximately 25 percent; and

WHEREAS, State of California Senate Bill 375 (Steinberg) requires that communities reduce greenhouse gases by addressing emissions from the transportation and land use sector by coordinating Regional Transportation Plans, Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA) and General Plan Housing; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. holds only 2% of world oil reserves yet consumes 25% of world oil production thus demonstrating an undue reliance on a shrinking resource; AND the burning of fossil fuels is considered one of the chief contributors of global warming; and

WHEREAS, the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission (‘BCDC’) in 2006 began to develop a strategic plan to evaluate and address consequences of a potential 1 meter sea level rise by year 2100, and yet the BCDC is now adapting their strategic plan for a potential 1.4 meter sea level rise based on the latest data indicating that the melting of glaciers and the Greenland and Antarctic ice sheets is occurring faster than expected; and

WHEREAS, Benicia's air quality is negatively affected by local and regionally produced pollution, including emissions from businesses and industry, vehicle and ship traffic, and in 2001, the State of California's health survey identified Solano County as having the highest asthma rates in the State with 14.1 percent asthma symptom prevalence; and

WHEREAS, The National Trust for Historic Preservation and the California State Office of Historic Preservation encourages retention and adaptive reuse of historic buildings as a beneficial "green" practice. Retention and adaptive reuse of these buildings preserves the materials, embodied energy, and human capital already expended in their construction. Actions of the Sustainability Commission shall support the tenets of historic preservation and the achievement of projects in compliance with the Secretary of the Interior Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties; and

WHEREAS, sustainable finance mechanisms, including those associated with energy efficiency and renewable energy, are a critically important element of developing a healthy and responsible community empowerment infrastructure, for which new avenues of public, private and nonprofit funding are becoming more readily available; and

WHEREAS, Benicia strives to provide regional leadership as a partner in the development of integrated sustainability solutions that reach across geographic boundaries; and

WHEREAS, becoming an ecologically sustainable city improves local and regional public health, community well-being, environmental protection and quality of life.
